

Village at Cordata Approved Plant List
NW Drought Tolerant 2020

NOTE (as of January 2023): This list was obtained from Village at Cordata (south) in 2022. Many of these plants are currently planted at Northwind (VACNCA). These are all mostly nursery/hybridized plant types, not native plants.

Arborvitae
Arbutus (Madrona/Strawberry tree)
Artemesia (wormwood, sagebrush)
Azalea
Burning bush
Caragana arborescens(peashrub/tree)
Cercis occidentales (W. redbud)
Chamaecyparis humilis (palm fan)
Catalpa bignonioides (smoke tree)
English boxwood
Escallonia (evergreen shrub)
Euonymus
Exochorda macrantha (pearl bush)
Heavenly bamboo (nandina)
Hydrangea
Lavender
Laurel
Mugo pine
Ninebark dwarf
Photinia glabra (NOTE: Don says this plant is not hardy in this climate)
Rhododendron
Rosemary
Spiraea (japonica)
Vine maple tree
Weigela
Yew (shrub only)

No groundcover, grasses, or anything that spreads. Use and maintain annuals in pots for the season. Any questions, please ask someone on the landscape committee.

Additional plants on a different Village list:

Barberry
Dogwood tree (under 15 feet)
Japanese holly
St. Johns wort shrub